Dear Mr. Lance:

This is in final reply to your facsimile of February 18, 2010 concerning (b) (6), who seeks your support in obtaining release from the United States Navy's Delayed Entry Program (DEP).

We have been advised that (b) (6) was separated from the Navy's DEP on March 8, 2010. Documents notifying him of his separation were prepared and mailed to him. We have enclosed a copy for your information.

We trust this information will be of assistance in responding to your constituent. Thank you for bringing your constituent's concerns to our attention.

Sincerely,

(b) (6)

Head, Congressional and Special Inquiries Branch
Office of the Inspector General
By direction of the Commander

SHIP OR STATION

COMMANDING OFFICER, NAVY RECRUITING DISTRICT NEW YORK

ADMINISTRATIVE SEPARATION FROM DELAYED ENTRY (DEP)

8-Mar-10: Administratively separated this date with an uncharacterized Entry Level Separation. Authority: CRUITMAN-ENL Chapter Four and Chapter Six. A total of 224 days have passed since the beginning of this DEP period.

Reason: ZBD Refused to Enlist-Separate Action Initiated

REENLISTEMENT MAY NOT BE EFFECTED WITHOUT THE PRIOR APPROVAL OF THE COMMANDING OFFICER, NAVY RECRUITING DISTRICT NEW YORK.

1. If you feel you have been separated in error or would like to include a statement for the record, you may do so by contacting your recruiter to request for local procedures.

2. You are entitled to the following rights and privileges:

a. The right to obtain copies of documents that will be forwarded to Chief of Naval Personnel supporting the basis for the recommended separation. (Classified documents may be summarized).

b. The right to submit statements.

3. An Entry Level Separation is an administrative separation without characterization of service. Provided the reason(s) in which you are being considered for an administrative separation can be resolved favorably and you meet all other enlistment eligibility requirements, you may reapply for enlistment consideration into the naval service.
